Louisiana vs. Buchanan.

We commend the subjoined sensible article from the New Orleans True Delta, a staunch ed an independent proposition into the House, pro-Democratic pro slavery and State-rights paper, Democratic pro slavery and State-lights paper, the exigencies of State shall require a greater to the consideration of some of our Democratic enterpolaries who are defending the President's the statement of the Secretary of War, that "twoattempted invasion of the rights of the people of thirds of the rank and file of our present standing Kansas.

"At the commencement of the recent session of the Legislature at Baton Rouge, our readers will recollect that au adherent of the Buchan anan dynasty, anxious to curry favor with the pap dispensers, offered, in the popular branch, the following modest—indeed, humble resolutions, complimentary to the Executive on the Kansas affair:

the principle of non intervention in the forma-tion of a constitution by the people of the Territory, and that his message submitted to Congress furnishes abundant evidence of bis adherence to sentatives in Congress.

There was nothing very objectionable in these resolutions, they asked for only a very pitiful meed of commendation for our warlike President, indeed, so pitiful that had Democrats been ready to give any praise at all, the Know-Nothing members were willing to vote for them.—But they eovered a principle, they were open to the interpretation of being an endorsement of the stupidity, folly, and deceit which have prevailed in Kinsas affairs under federal domination, and the Representatives of the people of Louisiana were not prepared to stultify themselves. dent, indeed, so pitiful that had Democrats been Louisiana were not prepared to stultify themselves by voting even a faint approval of such proceedings, merely to solace men who have shown neither loyalty, sincerity, patriotism, or states manship in grappling with the Kansas troubles Louisiana was not prepared to unite in chorus with the John Van Bureus, the newspaper Bennetts, the Cochranes, Dixes, and the offal gener ally of Abolitiouism, in demanding the admis-sion of Kansas into the Union contrary to every Democratic sentiment, and in opposition to the well understood wishes of nine-tenths of its inhabi tants. If there was any reason for supposing that any respectable portion of the people of that Territory were in favor of making it a slave State, or if there was the smallest possible chance of slavery ever being established permanently there, Louisiana would be among the last to yield an inch on the question; but when told by the President himself, when assured by all his Northern Abolition allies that the constitution which, for admission into the Union, is all sufficient—is not binding upon the people for whom it is formed, and may be discarded at pleasureafter that announcement Louisiana, whatever her Congressional delegation may do, or however they may act, will not be found approving any such doetrine. If the Kansas Constitution be such as to justify its framers in their application to have the Territory admitted as a State, it is extraordinary if those who so contend should adopt the views of President Buehanan, and declare we suppose that the Bee and Crescent newspapers | sale. of this city, the only Lecomptonites fully here, are prepared to admit on the same principle that the constitution of the State may be superseded by legislative act at the determination of a mere majority is of the General Assembly in the Kansas question, to the compulsory en- Illinois. forcement of an unratified constitution upon the people of any State or Territory, we have thought much of the matter as presented by Buchanan and the supporters of his individual views, and consequently have no opinion at this time, or in this connection, to give upon the subject; but our catemporaries above alluded to, have no doubt maturely considered their position. and we should like to bavo from them an explicit

County Court DAY .- Last Monday was an old fashioned "Court Day." We have not seen so large a crowd in our streets for several months, nor so much business transacted since the begin ing of the panic last fall. The sales, it is true. did not run up to the high figures reached some time last spring and summer, but they exhibited a very marked increase over those of the last declaration in regard to it, as before long we may require the information for a domestic appli-

There were eight or nine hundred mules in market, and about five hundred cattle, besides as you want it-I have no use for the lousy dol large numbers of horses and other property. Mr. Hibler is the only auctioneer that has favored us with a report. It foots up $34,690 95. Two year old mules brought from $81 to $116 a head—yearlings from $58 to $95.

There was a perceptible advance in the prices of all kinds of stock, and sales were much more easily effected than at any sale day for some months. This is the result of the increasing confidence in the business community, and the gradual improvement in the money market. This improvement bas been slow and gradual, but it has been real and although money may still be has been real, and although money may still be called very tight, it is not near so tight as it has been, especially for dealers in stock.

The banks are affording some accommodations. and private eapitalists are loaning to some extent, but still at high rates.

This was the day for the annual show of horses, usually quite an attraction to breeders and fanciers of these noble animals. The show was a very fine one, about twenty five of the best horses in the county being present. There were also some of the longed-eared gentry present, attracting attention, not by comeliness of form or grace of movement, but by the money value wrapped up in their ugly hides.—Paris Cit

Another Death from Lock-Jaw .-- Wm. Fox, only son of Henry Fox, lately of this place and now residing near Brown's Lock, died on last Monday, from lock jaw occasioned by pricking his foot with a nail. On last Friday week, while uncovering a house near this place he stepped upon a nail, which passed through his shoe and pen-etrated the bottom of his foot. The pain exporienced at the time was so slight as to give him no concern in reference to it. The wound was thus permitted to pass unnoticed until last Saturday, when the premonotory symptoms of lock jaw were experienced, and later in the evening be was scized with paroxysms, which followed each other in quick succession until 9 o'clock Monday morning, when he died. The gricf of his parents we understand is almost too great to be borne. We cordially sympathise with them in their deep sorrow.

The deceased was brought to this place and buried yesterday.—Bowlinggreen Gazette.

THE ARMY BILL.—FOREIGNERS AND THE "BLOODY KNOW NOTHINGS"—Our readers are aware that, early in the session of the present Congress, the Administration brought forward a measure for an increase of the standing army. This measure was promptly killed, and mainly by the friends of the Administration. Gen Quitmau then introducarmy are foreigners," has been reiterated, and used as a powerful argument against the Administration policy, and in support of the volunteer policy. One of the Union and American's nuncrous Washington corresspondents thus speaks of the effort of Mr. Savage, of Tennessee, in sup-port of Gen. Quitman's bill:

pap dispensers, onered, in the popular branch, the following modest—iudeed, humble resolutions, complimentary to the Executive on the Kansas affair:

1. Be it Resolved, That when Congress passed the law organizing the Territory of Kansas, no departure from the usages of the Government was contemplated, and no new conditions were was contemplated, and no new conditions were imposed.

2. Resolved, That when the people of Kansas through their Territorial Legislature, passed a law providing for the call of a Convention, they ment-that it would overturn the military poli cy of the country, and for the future do away with those gallant volunteers whose deeds are undying in our rocords—whose valor achieved our liberties at first, and will protect them till the of the United States, is solemnly pledged to the people, by the acceptance of the nomination to the Presidency under the Cincippeti pletform The sham Democracy have been so persistent people, by the acceptance of the nomination to the Presidency under the Cincinnati platform, to that source. It will not do to trust "foreigners against foreigners," at least as soldiers. We are to infer that they would either fly the field or go over bodily to the enemy. But we should like to know if foreigners are unfit to be made "food for powder," how much worthier are they to be 5. Resolved, That the Governor be and he is hereby, requested to transmit a copy of these resolutions to each of our Senators and Representations to each of our Senators and Representations. to be made a citizen of this country who cannot be relied on to protect and defend the rights and interests and honor of the country? There has een a great deal also said about the insignifi cance of the foreign population of the States, in point of numbers, and their inability to do any great harm, if they were so disposed. But it is now officially admitted that they al-ready compose two-thirds of the rank and file of the Army, and it is insisted that they are unreliable. Here we have a most complete and nanswerable vindication of the doctrines and ustification for the apprehensions entertained and expressed by the "bloody Know Nothings," v the very men who have been most bitter and eepless in opposition to them. It is furthermore a flat denial of much that they have written aud ooken against the American party. Will not ich facts arrest the attention and enlist the so per reflection of the people?-Nashville Patriot.

> Washington Gossip .- The Washington cor espondent of the New York Times writes under

> You need an explanation of the vote on the volunteer bill to day. The House understood General Quitman to say that the Military com mittee concurred in the Senate amendment reducing the number of regiments to three, and voted accordingly. He afterwards explained that the committee, as well as the President, desired five regiments, and a large number of members immediately changed their votes; but the ex-planation came too late, or the programme indiated yesterday might have succeeded.

Col. Colt is understood to have made a con tract with the War Department for one hundred thousand dollars worth of his arms.

The majority will probably adopt a resolution directing the can celing of the sale, the return of the first install meut of the purchase money, and the censure of that in that eveut, its provisions as they affect the people themselves, are a nullity. > An Irishman's Confidence in a Bank .- We spatched to Utah. neard the following capital story yesterday, and only regret that we cannot tell it as it was told

A banker, in Dubuque, whom we shall call Mr. M-ly, for short, found it necessary a short time ago to suspend business, and accordingly closed his doors, and issued a card to his depositors, in which he stated that he hoped he would soon be able to resume again. The day after Mr. M. had closed his doors, he was met by a Hibernian miner who had $6,000 deposited with him, and

"God morning, Mr., M., faith an' it's well you're looking this morning, considerin' the weather. But, sure, it's sorry I am, Mr. M., to see that card of yours in the papers. But niver to the public, framed by one convention commityou mind such trifics as that, mon—take courage and hould np your head as high as iver—the throuble of the thing will soon be over. And as for that $6,000 of mine, just kape it as loug lars—and I know yees for an honest mon, and perfectly good for the same at anytime. Kape it, sir, and pleasant be wid ye."

Mr. M. expressed his thanks, and the banker and depositor separated. But on the following day Mr. M. was startled from his "pleasant dreams" by the presentation of a check for $6,000, bearing the name of his Hibernian friend. Not knowing exactly how to understand the mat ter, Mr. M. sent for Patrick, when the following stolen from us." To such an explanation, together with the new temptation of $4,000 additional, the banker could take no exceptious—so be counted out the $6,000, in short. But that was the last of the Irishman. The banker meeting him several days afterwards, desired another explanation.

"Och, the truth is, Mr. M., its myself that has been ashamed to see yees. Peggy, that divil of mine, see, has hid the money, and dom me if I can find it all at all, and that's the truth, sir.' but Pat generously declined to accept the same, although justly entitled to it.—Burlington Ga-

THE LECOMPTON TICKET WITH THE CRITTENDEN AMENDMENT .- An Irishman on election day made his appearance at one of the polls with a ticket in his hand, which he declared was the "true Dimmercratic tieket." An acquaintance looked at it, and found that it was headed with the name of Judge Speneer. He remarked, "Why, Pat, that's not the Democratic ticket, at all.' "Faith an' it is," was Pat's reply-"its the Lecompton ticket, with the Crittenden amend-

STORM AT LEBANON .- We learn that the storm on Thursday was felt severely at Lebanon and caused some damage. The tin roof on the engine house of the railroad was blown off, but the work on it was so well done that it carried with Lectures by Hox. T. F. It will be delivered on Saturday evening next.

Work on it was so well done that it carried with it the rafters and joists by which it was attached to the building. The roof was made by Col. Hicks, of this city, who, when at Lebanon a few days ago, recommended more secure fastenings. The damage will be $2,000.—Louisville Journal. Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 7. House .- Mr. Lovejoy made an ineffectual effort to introduce a resolution calling upon the Secretary of War to inform the House how many army officers are absent from their duties at the seat of government and how many hold offices by election or otherwise. Mr. Branch spoke with reference to a recon sideration of the vote by which the deficiency bill was rejected. He hesitated to declare that the monstrous expenditures of the army had al-most reached a point to induce the entire coun-try to rise and demand a reform, and pointed out the way by which this might be effected. He believed, as had heretofore been declared by this House in form of a resolution, that Utah is in a state of rebellion, and it is now unjust and too late to undertake to control the discretion of the President as to the disposal of the troops.

Mr. Glancy Jones, in reply said that the Quarter Master General did not send the estimate on his own responsibility, but they were received with the endorsement of the Sceretary of War. Mr. Branch was satisfied with this explanation and was glad to find that no infringement on propriety had been perpetrated by any bureau

MONDAY,APRIL 12, 1858

FOR CLERK OF THE COURT OF APPEALS, GEORGE R. McKEE, OF PULASKI COUNTY.

Do Not Forget!

That the different Councils of Franklin County are expected to meet at such times as they may severally find convenient, so as to appoint delegates to attend at the Court House in Frankfort on the 3d Monday in April (County Court day,) to select candidates of the American Party for the following offices: County Judge, County Court Clerk, Sheriff, County Attorney, Assessor, Coroner, Surveyor and Jailor.

To Know Nothingism in its palmly days could'nt boast a demagogue and trickster such as the editor of the Louisville Democrat has shown himself to he in discussing points involved in the Kansas controversy. The editorials ed in the Kansas controversy. he has written for the sly hypocrite from Illinois are spread out with an air and semblance of logie which is calculated to mislead those whose east and discipline of mind is not equal to close east and discipline of mind of argument.

[Paris (Ky.) Flag.

We have no disposition to interfere with the family quarrels of the "harmonious Democracy," but it does sound strange to our ear, to hear S. A. Douglas, denounced by a Democratic paper, as a "sly hypocrite." This species of argument is from the same source that denounces Mr. Crittenden as an Abolitionist because he propos ed a fair and honorable adjustment of the Kan sas difficulty, and because the northern men, con vinced by his able and logical argument, voted with him and against the dietation of the Administration. Out upon such hypocrisy as this say we. We presume that the editor of the Democrat will not be frightened from its sense of right by the denunciation of every thumb paper editor that chooses to vent his spleen against an advocate of sound republican policy.

We call the attention of our readers to an interesting letter on Liberia, from the Rev. A. M. Cowan, Agent of the Kentucky Colonization Society. Mr. Cowan has just returned from Liheria, having visited that place last fall for the purpose of acquainting himself, by personal ohservation, with all the facts concerning the pe euliarities of elimate, manners and government of the colony. To all who are interested in the cause of Colonization the letter will be valuable information. We hope that Mr. Cowan may be induced to give to the public through our columns many other facts connected with the country .-We offer our space freely to him.

PIONEER CELEBRATION OF THE SETTLEMENT OF OHIO AT CINCINNATI,-We elip the following extract from the Cincinnati Gazette's description of the Pioneer celebration in that city on the evening of the 7th inst. Mrs. John Cleves Symmes, whose name is mentioned in the account will be remembered as the venerable lady of the late Capt. Symmes, of the U. S. Navy, she was for many years a resident of Fraukfort:

There was also present, Mrs. Frances H. St Clair, aged 71 years, the widow of Arthur St. Clair, (son of Gov. St. Clair,) who was a cotemporary at the bar with Judge Burnet and others. The lady came to Cincinuati when there was present administration. but a single brick house upon the site of the city. which then stood at the corner of Ffth and Main steets, and was occupied by Elmore Wil-

Mrs. E. M. Heighway, the first white child born in Cineinnati, (in 1792,) was present, and although age prevented her being a very active participant, she enjoyed the festivities of the oeeasion with evident pleasure, and recounted the stirring scenes of early days with anima-

The venerable Jonathan Pancoast, aged 91 years, also participated, as did Jefferson Patterson, a son of one of the original proprietors of Cincinnati. Mrs. John Cleves Symms, wife of a nephew of the original patentee of the Miami Purchase, was also present, as were a large number of others, whose names we have not space or time to give this morning.

TIn every place he has been Mr. Revill will run ahead of Mr. Buchanan's vote.—Louisville

Just so! He will run so far ahead of Mr. Buc hanan's vote that the election returns will not induce him to lessen his pace, until he settles down quietly amid the fastnesses of his own "Sweet Owen."

Dennis Murphy was to-day unanimously confirmed by the Senate as Postmaster at Harper's Ferry, Va .- Telegraph.

We shall next expect to hear that Barney O'Reirodan has been appointed minister to the Court of St. James.

Of the seven absentees in the Senate, two are dangerously ill; one has not been in Washington since his election, and another has been three months absent from siekness. Mr. Henderson, of Texas, is far gone in consumption .-Mr. Davis, of Mississippi, is said to be in danger of losing his evesight. Mr. Bates, of Delaware, has not been heard of this winter, nor is it known upon what side of the Kansas question he is. Mr. Reid, of North Carolina, left here for home about the first of January, and was unable to get further than Richmond. Mr. Sumner has never recovered from the injuries he recived in the brutal assault upon him by Brooks.

THE KANSAS BILL .- General Duff Green publishes a letter in the Washington States insisting that the South ought to resist the Lecompton bill, out of regard for its own honor as well as trial. Once more we warmly recommend this its interests. Being in a minority, he says, the South cannot afford to put herself in the wrong.

IDP. T. Barnum is in luck once more. He is again at the head of the New York museum, which has been languishing for want of his paternal care, and with the assistance of $27,000 lately received on insurance, is preparing to rebuild Iranistan on a magnificent scale.

Catalina-Only he who has nothing to hope om a woman is trnly sincere in her praise.

The Kentucky Regiment of Volunteers for Utah.

On Friday last, the 9th inst., according to aption was as follows. Twenty-one companies had een tendered, viz:

1. Capt. WALES, of Louisville 2. Capt. Donan, of Hart county.

3. Capt. Bacon, of Franklin county.

4. Capt. DEAR, of Shelhy county. 5. Capt. HANKS, of Anderson county.

6. Capt. BEARD, of Lexington. 7. Capt. Taapnall, of Mercer county.

16. Capt. Moore, of Pendleten county. 17. Capt. Booker, of Washington county.

18. Capt. Adair, of Union county.

19. Capt. Daniel, of Owsley county. 20. Capt. Forsyth, of Louisville.

21. Capt. REESE, of Covington.

Two persons reported companies without a roll f officers and mon. One hy. Mr. W. M. Fulkerson, of Breathitt county, and the other by Mr. A. L. Sanders, of Carroll county. The Governor would not recognize their report on account of the deficiency alluded to.

The names of the twenty-one Captains were written on slips of paper, also the word "com pany" on ten other slips. The papers last named, at, and the slips containing the names of the boys were selected, one of whom drew from the hat a ticket on which was written the name of a Captain, the second boy then drew from the other hat a slip, which determined the acceptance or rejection of the company whose Captain had been named by the first paper drawn. The draw ing resulted in the selection of the following companies, viz:

1. Capt. WALES, of Louisville. 2. Capt. HANKS, of Andersou.

3. Capt. BEARD, of Lexington.

4. Capt. TRAPNALL, of Mercer. 5. Capt. Pierce, of Trimble.

6. Capt. McHENRY, of Daviess. 7. Capt. Rogers, of Louisville.

8. Capt. Moore, of Pendleton.

9. Capt. ADAIR, of Union.

10. Capt. REESE, of Kenton. Of course those present who were interested, and drew blanks, were much and deeply disappointed, but we were pleased to hear a universal approval and commendation of the fairness and impartiality with which the Governor conducted the whole affair.

Thomas K. Dohoney, of Adair county, has been appointed U.S. Marshal for Kentucky.—

Mr. Dohoney may he a very elever gentleman for aught we know. We never heard of him until now; but why Col. T. I. Young, the late Marshal, has been "rotated" out of office, we are at a loss to understand. We have reason to know that Col. Young is a good officer, besides being a gentleman, in the fullest sense of the term, and was fully up to the Jeffersonian standard, which the so called Democracy pretend is the measure of qualification for their appointees. He is "hon est, faithful and capable." His removal adds another item to the mysterious workings of the

THE COMING SUMMER .- It is said that the Earl of Rosse, one of the first astronomers in Europe. has told a gentleman in England that he antieipates one of the most intensely hot summers this year that has ever been known, and he advises farmers to build sheds for their cattle, by way of protection against the extreme heat.

IT McLean's Strengthening Cordial is reeiving the unanimous recommendation of the Press, not only at St. Louis, but all over the country. This remedy is evidently the result of close observation and study. Wherever it has been used it has been recommended with the highest encomiums of praise. Persons can have a pull, a strong pull, and pull altogether, up and pointed out the way in which all its difficulno conception of its officacy, without giving it a remedy as a superior Tonic and ALTERNATIVE.

Some of them have from one and a half to two and a half fathoms of water. But the bars at their mouths, except two of them, will not allow vessels over 40 tons to cross them with certainty at all times in the year. The Liberians have seven towns or settlements on this length of coast. All of them are ports of entry bu trade, where the Liberian, American, English, French and German traders trade with the natives in eloth, tobacco, rum. guppowder, brass, and iron kettles, &c. They get in exchange chiefly palm oil, eamwood, ivory, the palm-kernell. Other settlements of the Liberians are on the ogether with eleven blanks were placed in a and back from Cape Palmas. There are three capes on the coast. The highest cleff of Cape Mount is of Cape Palmas 108 feet; Cape Mesurada and Cape Palmas has oach a light-house. There are no harhors on the coast. The bars of the rivers abroad from crossing them; the vessels anchor in roadsteads, many of which have a sufficient depth of water for the largest class to ride at anchor in safety from a mile to a mile and a half from the shore.

Vessels arriving on the coast to trade employ natives to do the work of unloading and loading them. There is a tribe called Kroomen, whose tertorial possessions are within the county of Grand Bassa, Liberia. I say territorial, for as the common laws of the tribe allow, Brigham Young's matrimonial arrangements, they have a wife at the different points where the vessels stop to trade, which makes it convenient for the man to stop at home at night when in port, and save him self from the pitiable condition of having them all in one place to welcome him home after several weeks absence. These Kroomen are known by a mark from the top of the forehead, a half inch wide, that runs straight to the end of the nose. It is made in the infancy of the man, by scarrifying the flesh and inserting a black liquid which makes a deep jet black mark that neither time, nor age, nor siekness ean wear out. There are other marks made by the liquid, and scarrifying on other parts of the person, as on the temples, or arms, or back. but every male of the tribe has the mark in his forehead extending down to the end of the nose. They are well built, active, and well-disposed. Some of them are black, others a light black, while a few are a lightish brown. Before the Colonization ship came to anchor, we saw some sixty canoes between the ship and the shore, averaging two persons to each. Some of the canoes were directing their way to our ship, and others were going with great speed here and there. Such were fishing. The natives in the docility, in capacity to stand the climate, to an swer all her purposes. We use them for the pur canoes would throw out the hait and tie the other end of the line around their neek, (no shirt eol lars, recollect.) and away they would move by a paddle that was light, but from nine to twelve inches broad that made a pressure on the water, that seven oarsmen in a ships-boat could not keep up with, as I often had tested under the bait of twenty-five cents who would go the fastest .-When a fish took the bait, the neck silently spoke, stop, and take him on board. Other Kroomen came on board our ship; 183 of our emigrauts were gathered on one side of the deek gazing at their approach, naked as they came into the world. When alongside of the vessel, they took off a cloth wrapped around the head, or a straw hat, as the man was in pos session of, and in a moment threw it around his loins and came up thus dressed a la mode de natu, and moved around among our female emigrants with an nneoncern that said, "I have seen such brethren according to the flesh before." and bowed the head and spoke in broken English, "do well." The fact was, I myself, could not keep my eye from running from their head to their feet, and making comments to myself at the newness of the scene, and their great sang and the other smarting under a senso of that froid in approaching me and offering their hand saying, "morrow, morrow," to me; that is, good als in either section this measure of justico should morning. But now comes the most startling retrogade step of all. Another peep-hole, says the Cineinnati Times, is knocked through the Democratic wigwam. Another covert is sprung, another se eret, though not unsuspected doctrine leaks out to the light; and finds respectable utterance from the mouth of a leading spokesman of the party he represents in the United States Senate. The one. There are beside these towns, 27 Ports of individual to whom we are indebted for the last revelation of the true intent and meaning of the Democracy of the Administration, who has spoken the latest word of its current creed, is Senator Hammond, of South Carolina, whose sentiments touching the great advantages that would nure to the South from a dissolution of the banks of the St. Paul's, St. John's and Senoe rivers Union, we alluded to a day or two since. This geutleman has views in regard to the character Captains were placed in another hat. Two little 41,070 feet; that of Cape Mesurada 210, ft and that He can see no difference hetween this capable and value of the free laborers of this country .and intelligent class of free citizens and the degraded slaves of his own plantation. Nay, we misstate his positiou; he sees and acknowledges preventing vessels of such tonage as trade from a difference, but it is in favor of the drudging slave. He rejects with imperious contempt the notion of republican equality; sees no advantage in freedom and educated intelligence. Sees only in those who labor with the tools of art, and the lin county. ousy implements of industry, in a section of the country where labor has the same franchise as wealth, the equivalent of Southern slaves; ereaures to be whipped and scourged to their toil like beasts of burthen; creatures of eapability of endurance, and disability of temper, that wealth and enterprise can use it as its will for its own enjoyment aud profit.

This is his estimate of our intelligent working nen. This is promulgated as a new maxim in Democratic politics. These are the sentiments by which the President is to be strengthened and dictatorial and reckless Administration sustained. Having thrown overhoard the troublesome doetrine of popular sovereignty, which would no subserve its ends, it now lays its intriguing and and aggressive hand on the God-given and bloodsealed charter of the equality of freemen, the ireproachable manliness of independent labor .-Let the peoplo ponder on these things. Here are some of this Democratic autocrat's words: "In all social systems there must be a class to do the mean duties, to perform the drudgery or ife-that is, a class requiring but a low order of intellect and but little skill. Its requisites are vigor, docility, fidelity. Such a class you must have, or you would not have that other which leads progress, refinement and civilization. It constitutes the very mud sill of society and politi cal government, and you might as well attempt to build a house in the air as to build either the one or the other except on the mud sills. Fortunate ly for the South, she found a race adapted to that purpose to her hand—a race inferior to herself, but eminently qualified in temper, in vigor, in pose and call them slaves. The man who lives by daily labor, and who has to put out his labor in the market, and to take the best he can get for it short, your whole class of manual laborers and op eratives, are slaves. The difference between us is, that our slaves are hired for life and well comsated; yours are hired by the day, uncared for and scantily compensated.'

The National Intelligencer speaking of Mr.

Crittenden's substitute says: "But, after all, the best argument in hehalf of Mr. Crittenden's substitute is found in its trans parent fairness, equity, and impartiality. Its section nor the triumph of the other, but would secure justice to both. Under its operation full play is allowed for the principles of popular sov eignty, without prejudice being done to the rights of the South or of the North, and, as we think we have shown without prejudice to the political spirations of either, since, whether adopted or not, it is plain that the ultimate destiny of Kaneent and equal arrangement or shall it be wrought out amid the heated turmoil and grinding collisions of contending parties—the one exulting in the petty triumph of a barren political victory, defeat which leaves a sting even though it brings no loss? If through the contumacy of individu can people, wo are sure, will hold to a rigid re-sponsibility those who would seek to prefer an maginary party predominance to the pacifica tion of the whole country on a basis equally just and honorablo to both of the sections so unhappily and, we may add, so unnaturally arrayed against each other.'

FIO all persons afflicted with Sexual Diseases, such as SPERMATORRHEA, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, IMPOTENCE, GONORKHEA, GLEET, SYPHILIS, the VIce of ONANISM, or SELF-ABUSE, &c., &c.

The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a CHARITABLE ACT worthy of their finance, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give MEDICAL ADVICE GRATIS, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty, to FURNISH MEDICINES FREE OF CHARGE. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medicul skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment. The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zenl, to this very important but much despised cause.

PROSPECTUS GLASGOW FREE PRESS.

GLASGOW, KY., December 23, 1857. Dear Sir:—Having disposed of our Printing Office in Elizabethtown, Ky., and removed to Glasgow with the view of permanently locating we purpose commencing the publication of a newspaper sometime during the month of February, to be entitled "THE GLASTOW FREE PRESS." It will be devoted to General Interature, Politics, Agriculture, the Arts and Sciences, News, and especially to the promotion and advancement of and especially to the promotion and advancement of the local and general interests of the town and county, and those adjacent. No pains or exertion on one part will be intermitted to secure due consideration for all local enterprises, that may be calculated to advance the general weal of the community.

Au carnest effort will be made to render it a vuluable family newstancer, acceptable to all parties, combining general weal of the community.

Au earnest effort will be made to render it a valuable family newspaper, acceptable to all parties, combining a variety of interesting and Instructive subjects in its columns. Having had considerable experience in the business, and being practically lamiliar with its mechanical duties, we indudge the hope that we shall be enabled to subserve to some extent, the interests to which the "Free Press" will be dedicated.

American Politics in the present time, may be said very justly, to be in a chrysalis state. We do not design, in this Prospectus, to enter the domain of speculation. It is not necessary to the present purpose, or lodefue our political position. This may be defined very briefly. We are conscientiously opposed to the practices and the precepts of Modern Democracy. We regard the Democratic party, as now constituted, essentially in alien party; and consider its aims and purposes, as avowed by its organs, practiced by its leaders, and developed in the present administration, pregnant with evil to the Union, in violation of the plant injunctions of the early fathers, and disastrous to American Nationality. We recognize in the "Address of the American Party," promulgated as the Louisvitle Convention, a political creed, eminently national, eminently conservative, and peculiarly adapted to present exigencies. We believe that in the fundamental principles of that organization may be found the pinnece for many, if not all the political evils, which have disordered the country and tomented sectional strife, and which it is now in evident contemplation to aggravate by unwless and imprudent legislation.

Whilst we shall alm to be perfectly independent and honest in the expression of our views of public men and measures, we shall studiously observe courtesy and a proper respect for the opinions of others, whose convictions may lead them to differ with us. It is the peen cliently and tue boast of American institutions, that they secure to each and every one the "free and untrammeted ed expression of his opinions." In no other government is this perfect freedom of opinion in the citizen tolerated, or considered compatible with the dignity of the State. Our whole system of government reposes upon this basis. Public opinion is here at once the source and the support of power. We cherish an appreciation of the great privilege, too exhited, to induce us to refuse to others what we are prompt to claim for ourselves. Hence the columns of the "Fark Parss" will at all thues be open to well written, courteous arwill at all thues be open to well written, courteous ar-ticles, even though they may conflict with our individu-
